

Champions WELLAND LEADING THE WAY

Wednesday, October 14, 2015
FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CANALSIDE PLAYERS ARE READY FOR THE BIG CATCH

Welland, ON – Canalside Players theatre group is celebrating two years of talent with the group's third theatrical production. The Great Kooshog Lake Hollis McCauley Fishing Derby opens Friday, October 16, at the Welland Community Wellness Complex.

Written by Norm Foster and directed by Lee Moffatt, the quirky comedy promises to keep its audience entertained. The play opens with James Bell, an investment banker who is stuck in the sleepy town of Kooshog Lake during the town's annual fishing derby. It's a fish out of water story that becomes a quirky and hilarious fish in the water story that amuses the audience with romance, broken hearts, and a shark attack.

Canalside Players board member and actress, Dina Senior, plays Rhonda, the overbearing post-mistress who takes a shining to James Bell. "As a cast we had a lot of fun developing this play," said Senior. "It's really funny, with a touch of drama and a lot of heart." The Great Kooshog Lake Hollis McCauley Fishing Derby is appropriate for most ages (some mild language and sexual themes) and is performed in a fully accessible theatre.

Tickets are on sale now for $15 passholders or $17 for non-passholders. Tickets are purchased at the Wellness Complex or by phone at 905-735-1700 ext. 4000.

-30-

Contact: Cassandra Magazzeni
Arts & Culture Coordinator
Recreation and Culture Division
Corporation of the City of Welland
145 Lincoln Street, Welland, ON L3B 6E1
Phone: 905-735-1700 ext. 4032