CITY INCREASES ONLINE SERVICES

Welland, ON – The City of Welland is increasing online services to the community with a new user-friendly online parking ticket payment option. Anyone needing to pay a parking ticket is now able to do so through the City's website at <http://www.welland.ca/Parking/OnlinePayments.asp> and can use either Master Card or Visa Card to complete ticket payments.

"We are very pleased to be able to offer this convenient new option for paying parking tickets," says Ali Khan, Supervisor of Traffic, Parking and Bylaws. "This online payment system is part of the City's continued commitment to provide access to public services 24/7."

Those living outside of Welland will also benefit from this new online service as payments can be made anywhere Internet access is available. Parking tickets can also be paid at the Civic Square, Finance Department located at 60 East Main Street, or by mail to:
