OPENING OF PUBLIC SWIMMING POOLS PROLONGED DUE TO WEATHER

Due to heavy rainfall this spring the city's outdoor swimming pools have an extended opening date. All three public pools are now scheduled to open Saturday, June 24, 2017. City staff continue to prepare the pools for the swimming season; however, extraordinarily heavy rainfall has delayed pre-season maintenance significantly.

Public Works staff strive to prepare public spaces for recreational programs on schedule; however; weather does occasionally affect service delivery. The following schedule begins June 24, 2017 for the Rosie Smith Pool, Memorial Park Pool, and Maple Park Pool.

Weekdays: 6:00 p.m. to 8:00 p.m.

Weekends: 12:00 p.m. to 4:00 p.m. & 6:00 p.m. to 8:00 p.m.

The following regular extended schedule begins on June 30, 2017 for the Rosie Smith Pool, Memorial Park Pool, and Maple Park Pool.

Weekdays: 1:00 p.m. to 4:00 p.m. & 6:00 p.m. to 8:00 p.m.

Weekends: 12:00 p.m. to 4:00 p.m. & 6:00 p.m. to 8:00 p.m.

Glenwood Park and Chippawa Park public splash pads are presently open from dusk till dawn. The Memorial Park splash pad is scheduled for opening on Wednesday, June 14, 2017. All three public swimming pools and splash pads continue to be a free public service for all to enjoy. For more information on City of Welland public swimming pools and splash pads visit welland.ca.
