WELLAND MOURNS OVER TORONTO TRAGEDY

Welland, ON - The City of Welland is deeply saddened by the tragedy that claimed the lives of 10 pedestrians in Toronto on Monday, April 23. Another 15 people were injured in the incident.

The City sends sincere condolences to the families of those who lost loved ones, the victims, the witnesses on scene, and to the first responders who acted quickly and courageously.

As an expression of the city's condolences, the flags at Welland Civic Square are now lowered at half-mast, and a request has been put forward for Bridge 13 to light the sky with blue and white lighting to represent Ontario colours.
