CANALSIDE PLAYERS BRINGS BARE BEAR BONES TO THE THEATRE

Welland, ON - The Canalside Players—Welland’s Community Theatre group—is back in the theatre preparing for a fifth production. This ambitious group will present Canadian playwright Michael Grant’s hilarious play Bare Bear Bones for five performances this April 2018.

Bare Bear Bones is a story about love and communication. Hoping to put the spark back in their marriage, empty nesters Norman and Ruth return to The Bear Bones Family Campground, a place where they remember being in love. They soon discover that their once-loved family campground has undergone some major changes, and has become the Bear Bones Alternative Lifestyle Campground.

Directed by Sara Tellier and starring Erica Perron as Libby, Richard Nester as Norman, Natalie Iggulden as Doris, Lonnie Langille as Frank, Terri Haymes as Ruth, Andrew Dominick as Lenny, Hunter Tellier as Annie, and Adam Beres as Bruce.

Show Dates: April 13, 14, 20 and 21 at 7 p.m. and April 15 at 2 p.m. All performances are in the Theatre at the Welland Community Wellness Complex (WCWC), located at 145 Lincoln Street in Welland. Tickets are on sale now at the WCWC, or can be purchased from cast and crew ($15 for Passholders, $17 for Non-Passholders). Bare Bear Bones is rated PG-13.
