ARMED FORCES EXPANDS TRAINING EXERCISE ON WELLAND’S RECREATION CORRIDOR

Welland, ON – The Canadian Armed Forces has expanded its scheduled physical fitness training activity to include one extra exercise on Sept. 26, between the hours of 6:00 a.m. and 1:00 p.m. The training will take place on Welland’s Recreation Corridor, near the Welland International Flatwater Centre. Soldiers will participate in the training while wearing full camouflage attire, carrying gear, and moving canoes. A military presence will be on-site during the exercise.
