

City opens cooling stations and extended public pool times to assist residents during excessive heat

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

July 19, 2022

Welland, ON – The City of Welland has established cooling stations for residents in need of relief from the outdoors when a heat alert is in effect. Cooling stations will be opened for public use when a heat alert is issued by the Government of Canada. Welland Transit washrooms are available to the public.

A heat alert is issued when the humidex is at least 40°C or higher for two consecutive days, or daily temperatures are expected to reach 31°C or higher for two consecutive days and overnight temperatures are at least 20°C or higher for two consecutive days.

It is recommended that residents take precautions during extreme heat and humidity episodes to keep family members safe. Seniors, young children, people with disabilities, and pets are highly vulnerable to extreme heat and humidity. Do not leave children or pets unattended in parked cars or areas susceptible to hot conditions.
