PROCLAMATION

“NATIONAL PARAMEDIC SERVICES WEEK”

May 17 to May 23, 2026

- Whereas National Paramedic Services Week was recognized this year from May 17 to May 23 across Canada and celebrates the caring professional Paramedics in Canada.
- Whereas This year's theme for Paramedic Services Week is, "Better Care Starts Here", and recognizes the many ways paramedics use their advanced expertise to care for, protect, and strengthen the communities they serve.
- Whereas Paramedic Services play an integral role in keeping our community safe, healthy and strong through community-based programs, training and educational initiatives; and
- Whereas Paramedic Services Week is an opportunity to show appreciation and give thanks to those who service their communities in the hardest of times, 24 hours a day, 7 days a week and 365 days a year; and
- Whereas Every day across the Niagara Region and throughout Canada, Paramedics serve members of their community with compassion, empathy and lifesaving skills that often involve rapidly changing circumstances, while ensuring individuals receive the best quality emergency care regardless of status, race, gender or situation; and
- Whereas The City of Welland recognizes and proudly supports all Paramedics that service the community with commitment, courage, and professionalism.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Frank Campion, Mayor of the City of Welland do hereby proclaim
May 17 to May 23, 2026, as “NATIONAL PARAMEDIC SERVICES WEEK” in the City of Welland.
